USCG Auxiliary Flotilla 014-05-10

MINUTES

Shipmates,

We need your assistance and forbearance! Please a moment or two, to review TWO sets of minutes: 1. those of last year's December 15, 2016 meeting (which were lost in the shuffle and not approved at our January meeting); and 2. the minutes of that January 19, 2017 meeting (a very interesting meeting!).

Thank you for your tenacity and diligence!

Please join us tomorrow, Thursday, at 1700 H, at the MIO building, for our monthly business meeting. Bring your ideas, interests and passions to the table as we put into action the next eleven months of Flotilla 5-10!!!

V/R,

Stephen Sokol, FSO-SR

Announcements - Former 05-10 Member David Friedman took time from his visit to New York to speak with the Flotilla. Mr. Friedman is Vice President, Development and Marketing with the Coast Guard Auxiliary Association, an Officer of Flotilla 6-3, Dayton, OH, and ADSO-PE for District 8, Eastern Region. An experienced fundraiser, he offered advice on a number of topics:

*The benefits of being a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary Association, which we all are. The CGAA website has a list of places that offer discounts:
<https://www.cgauxa.org/auxa/member-benefits/>

*David Friedman also mentioned that 05-10 used to have a robust PE program centered out of Hunter College. PE is the second largest revenue source behind dues for the Auxiliary.

*If you work for a company that has a lot of boaters, talk to your HR coordinator and see if you can offer a class there.

*Chubb HQ is here. Contact their head of PR.

*Mr. Friedman also provided overviews of training opportunities available, including ATON inspection, the Flotilla Leadership Course, AUXLAMs. There are also Gold Side courses available.
