Elected Officer Reports -

-FC Wilkins - The official word is to abide by the "Coast Guard Social Media Handbook" (see http://static.dvidshub.net/media/pubs/pdf_25224.pdf). Recognize that if you choose to identify yourself as an Auxiliarist on social media then you represent the Coast Guard and to consider that your statements reflect on the Coast Guard. Therefore, Great care should be given to how you refer to current and past presidents.

-Also useful, "Coast Guard Uniform Guide (Look Sharp!)", at uniformguide.com.

-With Congressional budget process, there may be a Federal government shutdown. If this does occur, Auxiliarists are not permitted to use any USCG building or other facility. Any operations or other activities while wearing the uniform would be prohibited.

-Division 5 Change of Watch will be on 12 PM - 6 PM, Sunday, March 4, 2018, at the Sea Shore Restaurant, 591 City Island Ave, Bronx, NY 10464. Cost: $55 pre-paid, POC: Russ Fayer. Swearing-in of 2018 leadership, awards, and fellowship. All Auxiliarists encouraged to attend!

-FC Wilkins reported on his participation in the Leadership Development Academy/LDA, at the Coast Guard Academy, December, 2017. The weekend was a productive endeavor. The Active Side values the Auxiliary and with ongoing budget cuts will need to rely on us more and more; AUXFS and AUXWS were cited by the Leadership.

-Receive top-level training by taking Auxiliary Leadership and Management - a C-School-level 2-part course that often leads to transferable university credits: AUXLAMs Part A/AUX-02A, Friday, February 23 - Sunday, February 25, 0900 - 1700 H, at John Jay College, Manhattan. POC: Susan Pickman. Auxiliary Leadership and Management Web Site: www.uscgaux.info/content.php?unit=aux02 .

-D-Train will take place the weekend of 9 - 22 March, 2018, New port, RI.
