Flotilla 3-10 Member Named Division Auxiliarist of the Year

Julian Everly, Flotilla 3-10 "Callao", was named Division 3 Auxiliarist of the Year for 2015 on Saturday January 16th in Richmond, VA. Division 3 has 129 members in the Northern Neck, Essex County, and the Richmond and Petersburg areas. This is Everly's second such award in this Division. He received two similar awards in Northern Virginia before moving to the Callao Flotilla.

Everly is recognized throughout the Division and the Coast Guard Auxiliary for his life-long service of 63 years in the Coast Guard, Coast Guard Reserves, and the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

He serves as an Instructor of boating safety classes and a Vessel Examiner of both commercial and recreational boats. As a Coxswain and Qualification Examiner for Boat Operations he has trained and certified countless members throughout the 5th Coast Guard District (VA, MD, NC and Wash. DC) to high performance standards while sharing his philosophy and record of excellence through training and preparedness.

Presenting the award to Julian Everly is (l)
CDR Eva VanCamp USCG Fifth District Chief of Response for Sector Hampton Roads
