WHEN TO WEAR IT

FIRST, WHEN NOT TO WEAR IT

Wearing of the Auxiliary uniform without proper authority is a violation of law. Prohibited occasions for wear include:

- a. In places of dubious reputation where the uniform might be discredited or disgraced.
- b. When engaged in political activities.
- c. During paid employment or sports.
- d. Aboard an Auxiliary vessel or aircraft facility unless the facility is on an authorized patrol.
- e. Entry to or while present in a foreign country or territory unless specifically authorized by an appropriate Coast Guard authority.

Authorization may be granted in the following cases:

- (1) A scheduled patrol or deployment that might enter foreign territories.
- (2) An authorized SAR mission involving foreign borders or territories.
- (3) Deployment or guest status aboard a Coast Guard cutter or aircraft that enters foreign territory.
- (4) Visiting a foreign country as an Auxiliarist on official business.
