1935 Member Training Debra Alderman

- My CG Aux demo: social networking site for Auxiliarists. Opportunity to interact and network with other auxiliarists across the country. Will contain training, reference materials, etc. and be added to over time. You can join groups of interest and provide feedback. My.cgaux.org There are many instructional videos to help navigate. Search your email regarding the site and there are instructions there as well. Please remember the code of conduct when engaging in the community.

1955 Fellowship All

2017 BQ Course Garrison Bromwell

- New Members to complete the Basic Qualification Course through Aux Learning System. Seven module units to provide basic level of knowledge and key aspects. After the module, an open book test will be taken from the Auxiliary National Testing Center. Download the materials to use Adobe search to help answer questions.
- Will be required of all new incoming members. Existing members should also complete it.

2026 REYR Status Garrison Bromwell

- REYR status will prevent you from being able to qualify and requires you to complete additional steps in order to qualify. The status change is automatic due to the system. Once you have completed steps and they are loaded in AUXDATA, your flotilla commander must request for you to be re-added. Garrison Bromwell can pull data if need be to help.
- There is one more co-teaching opportunity this year for members who need their instructor hours. Boater Safety class 19 November 2016. Refer to events page for the Division for opportunities.
