

THE GUARDIAN...News as of 12 March 2015...

WATCH

Published as News Items from Flotilla 62 are Hot Off The Press...

130-06-02 IS FOR YOU! Flotilla 62 Commander is Robert Waltemate

Published Monthly As Your News Happens...SEND US YOUR NEWS...

Flotilla 62 is based at USCG Station Cape Disappointment, Ilwaco, WA

FSO-PB Lee LaFollette / Editor / Publisher / Photographer

Send Items/Photos to: traveladventures@hotmail.com

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE FL 62 COMMERCIAL FISHING VESSEL EXAMINERS: All of your Shipmates are proud of the great jobs these members are providing to the many fishing boats and happy to see the awards being presented at Sector Columbia River.<<More FL 62 awards.>>

BM1 SHANE ABOLD IS WELL REWARDED: A nice day for all attending the Enlisted Recognition Program at Cape D for BM1 Abold. Many accomplishments and technical proficiency went rewarded!>>>>

TIME TO REVISE AND UPDATE THE BOATING SAFELY CLASS: FSO-PE Elena Righettini and FSO-MT John Lester go through new and old booklets to see what has changed in the upcoming "Boating Safely" classes being taught at Station Cape D. Students need to be given current info.>>>>>>>>

FELLOWSHIP BREAKFAST AT "THE LIGHTSHIP": Another fun dining experience for everybody attending the breakfast fellowship. This was attended by several of the FL 62 former members and retirees from the AUX. A nice way to catch up on the news and discuss summer travel plans. Please attend the Fellowship events.<<<<<<<

WHO IS THAT IN THE "GUMBY" SUIT: Thank you FSO-OP Ronald Hilburger for both showing and telling FL 62 members how the Gummy Suit works. BZ to you from FL 62 for the lesson.<<<<<<<<<<<<

ALL THE WAY TO SKAMOKAWA, WA FOR FELLOWSHIP: Thanks Dan and Genie Cary for putting together the fantastic breakfast at the "DUCK INN" which was recently redecorated. A good turnout for FL 62. Where do we go next?>>>>>>>>>>>>

THE COMMANDANT GIVES FL 62 AWARDS: How nice to have everyone in the USCGAUX to be recognized for a job well done by the USCG Commandant. Everybody gets an award. Keep up the great work.<<<<<<<<<<<<

CREW ACADEMY GOING STRONG: Several members have been attending the weekend training classes in the Cape D Conference Room. Soon to start; training classes on the water. Be prepared for summer missions. <<<<<<

CAPE D GALLEY GETS AUX HELP: FL 62 VFC Robbi Siefert lends a cooking hand to FS3 Donna Urton on a busy weekend when lots of USCG Reservists were on station for their training days. BZ Robbi.<<<

FLOTILLA 62 is proud of BM1 Shane R. Abold of USCG Station Cape Disappointment for being recognized as the Columbia River Enlisted Person of the Year for 2014. A "Bravo Zulu" shout out to you from everybody in Flotilla 62. Congratulations! "Proud Traditions—Worthy Missions" since 1939...Your USCGAUX

