Subj: NEW CHIEF DIRECTOR OF AUXILIARY

To all Coast Guard Auxiliary Personnel:

It is a true honor to relieve the watch this week as your Chief Director. Since 1939, the Coast Guard Auxiliary has had and will continue to have a myriad of ever-evolving missions that includes our ultimate responsibility to promote and improve Recreational Boating Safety as well as provide the Coast Guard with high quality operational, administrative, and logistical support. This is an incredible and humbling responsibility to shoulder, and one that requires an unflinching commitment to excellence in mission execution and support. I look forward to leading this highly motivated and talented group of 23,000+ Auxiliarists!

I can still remember the first time that I was introduced to the Coast Guard by a Coast Guard Auxiliarist in my home town of Plymouth, Massachusetts. I am forever grateful for this introduction and experience. Over the past 21 years, I've had the privilege to serve my country and the Coast Guard as both an Aviator and Aero Engineering Officer. I've led Coast Guard personnel in both operational and mission support roles. Now, as your Chief Director, I look forward to learning more about your missions and working with National Commodore Malewski and his staff to carry out the goals laid out in the Auxiliary Strategic Plan for us by Admiral Schultz and Commodore Malewski.

When I'm not in uniform, I'm a family man and I enjoy spending quality time with my wife Sara and four children that are between the ages of 20 and 8. We recently moved to Charlotte, North Carolina and enjoy numerous outdoor activities to include boating on Lake Norman. Ladies and gentlemen, you have my commitment that I will strive to work with you and lead in a way worthy of our mission, your respect, and the sacrifices that so many of you have made and continue to make to keep us safe and worthy of the public trust. Thank you for your dedicated service and commitment to our nation, Semper Paratus!

Sincerely,

Captain Troy P. Glendye, U.S. Coast Guard
Chief Director of Auxiliary

For many reasons including the value of keeping communication lines clear and open as well as facilitating access to training and educational tools, all Auxiliarists are urged to have their own email address and to keep it updated in AUXDATA.
