Flotilla Meeting Notes

For the October meeting we met for our “annual” Flotilla dinner at Jacky’s Galaxy restaurant in Bristol. We ate there last in 2019 before COVID hit. The food and fun were just as great. All Flotilla business was deferred to the 9 November meeting. Many thanks to Morgan, Charlie and Dennis for making all the arrangements. Here are a few photos.

Here's a study in persistence and manual dexterity. Count 'em down!

Boating Safety Class

The Flotilla will teach a boating safety class at Rogers Public Library in Bristol at 9:00 AM on Saturday, 22 October. We can always use more instructors and folks to help with greeting students and administering tests. Also, in order to be initially qualified in the AUX, all members need to take the course. Contact Charlie at bristolkov@cox.net if you can help. These classes are fun and our only source of income.

Other Coast Guard News

The Coast Guard barque Eagle visited Newport Naval Station Newport 23-25 September. One Flotilla member and his son enjoyed an afternoon tour of this beautiful ship.

Next Flotilla Meeting – Wednesday, 9 November at 7:30 PM. Please join us for food, fellowship, fun and service.
