

US Coast Guard Auxiliary Uniforms
Albany, NY flotilla 014-15-04
(Revised 7 Feb, 2023)

Overview:

- The Tropical Blue Long (Trops) is the mainstay uniform for CG Aux meetings and non-operational public facing missions.
- The Operational Dress Uniform (ODU) is the mainstay uniform that is used for CG Aux meetings and all operational/underway missions. Sleeves should be rolled up, military cuff style, between April 1 and October 31.
- The Winter Dress Blue is optional and only authorized between November 1 and March 31. It is for CG Aux Meetings and non-operational Public Missions.
- The Auxiliary Work Uniform (AWU) is an optional, experimental, more casual, and less expensive alternative to those above.
- The Service Dress Blue (Bravo) Uniform is optional for Formal affairs.
- All US Coast Guard Auxiliary uniforms must be worn to the standard of perfection or not at all.
- USCG Aux uniforms are tax deductible (depending on your tax situation). Record all expenses as part of your monthly 7029 reporting.
- See the uniform procurement guide for standards of how to configure and wear uniforms:
