Flotilla 10-05 Report to Division

Membership:

Active recruitment has resulted in a recent addition of 2 new members bringing our total to 92. One to two additional new members expected.

Award Status:

Three recognition applications are currently underway:

Diversity 3 Star Award

2017 National Public Affairs Contest

Auxiliary Meritorious Team Award

Station Oak Island Safety Day – 3 June:

Over 10 Flotilla 10-05 Auxiliarists joined forces with the Station Oak Island Active side to host the annual Safety Day. Auxiliarists regulated entrance and parking allowing active duty members to address other Safety equipment presentations.

Flotilla Staff Officer Highlights:

FSO-HS (Historian): The 50th Anniversary Exhibit at the Southport Maritime Museum was hugely successful led by Carol Urgola and Jim Stafford. Grand Opening was attended by Southport Mayor Dove, Director of Maritime Museum Strickland, and BMC White of Station Oak Island. A total of 37 Auxiliarists acted as Docents. Museum officials estimated nearly 1000 visitors. Only 57 of the recorded visitors were local residents (Brunswick and New Hanover counties) with 23 states and 3 foreign countries represented.

FSO-PA (Public Affairs): National Safe Boating Week Proclamations were signed by 5 local area towns (Southport, Boiling Spring Lakes, Caswell Beach, Oak Island and St. James).
