Houston, There seems to be a problem. Should a new recruit have to wait almost 18 months to hear about his application?

Flotilla 10-01 members in AP Status > ONE YEAR

TRENDS AND PREDICTIONS: OR THROUGH THE GLASS DARKLY

With a number of members not having completed all or some of the mandated training, with 15 members who have not been to meeting in over a year, and another 5/6 members who have only been to one meeting, and with an increase in dues, I believe that our membership will drop by at least one third. Budgetary considerations might result.

Respectfully submitted,

Carl F. Robinson, FSO-HR , SO-HR

Contacts with prospective members:

1. Emails were exchanged with a prospective member who is transitioning from Raleigh to St. St. James. He may attend a flotilla meeting in July or August if he is in Southport.

2. Ephraim Botnick referred me to a former Auxiliariast from Virginia who recently moved to Winding River. He was a member of a flotilla in Fredericksburg about 16 years ago. I visited him on 29 June to review the new member exam, fill out an application, etc. We will meet again on 6 July to take fingerprints and photos and to finalize the application package.

ID card renewals:

None in June.

Assistance to new members

I met with Gene Mehring on 9 June and Steve Bourne on 24 June.

Respectfully submitted,

Chris Halladay. FSO-HR
