FLOTILLA 10-05 FSO-HR REPORT

Contacts with prospective members:

1. Emails were sent to five people who visited the flotilla's PA tent at the Oak Island Arts & Crafts fair on September 4 and expressed interest in the Auxiliary. None of the five have responded, so followup contacts will be made.
2. I talked to an individual about joining the Auxiliary at the flotilla's exhibit at Big Toy Day on September 17. He was in the Power Squadron in Raleigh ,and moved to St. James two weeks ago. He's not ready to join now, but may be interested after he's settled in. I will contact him next month.
3. Two people who stopped at the flotilla's PA tent at the Wooden Boat Show on September 24 mentioned that they might be interested in joining. I sent emails to them. I will follow up if there are no replies,
4. Six prospective members attended the flotilla meeting on September 20. Of the six, three have not responded to follow-up contacts; two are still considering joining, and one has enrolled (see below).

ID card renewals:

None in September.

Application submittal:

An application package for John Kinney was completed and submitted to DIRAUX on September 26. His photo was emailed the same day.

Respectfully submitted,

Chris Halladay, FSO-HR
