

Coast Guard Auxiliary Uniform Sources

Where to buy uniforms.

Many uniform components can be purchased on the Coast Guard Exchange (CGX) website. Most Auxiliary-specific items are not available from the CGX, but can be purchased on-line from the Coast Guard Auxiliary Store (CGAS): <https://auxcen.com/> . A few items, such as belts, name tags and garrison hats, are available on both websites. In most cases, the CGX prices are less than the CGAS for the same items, and the CGX does not charge for shipping or tax.

You'll need to register to make purchases. Click on "Sign In," then "Register," then answer Yes to the question "Are you a USCG Auxiliarist?" Enter your member ID number and name. Then enter a password (you can use your Member Zone password if you want.) The next time you sign in you will be asked for your email address and this password.

If you're unsure about what to buy or about sizes, call Customer Service at 800-874-6841, hours 0800-1500 Mon-Fri. The website is similar to most on-line shopping sites, with a shopping cart and checkout procedure. Payment is made by credit card.

The following descriptions of uniform components are meant to help new members buy their first uniforms. Only ODUs, hot weather uniforms, and tropical blues are covered. Components of other uniforms, such as Service Dress Blues and Dinner Dress Blues, are not described as new members are unlikely to purchase those.

Only basic uniform items are included here. Accessories and optional components, such as polo shirts, Tilley hats, sweaters and outerwear are not described. Members should always refer to the Auxiliary Manual and other uniform guidance documents for detailed information.

Operational Dress Uniform (ODU) components.

1. ODU Shirt. Purchase from CGX.
