

Alaska Test Questions

ABS & BS&S Courses

1. Which of the following requires an accident report to be filed with the State of Alaska?
 - a. A passenger becomes ill
 - b. There is a boat or property damage under $500
 - c. The operator falls and breaks an arm
 - d. A boat strikes a marine mammal
2. Alaska law requires a child under what age to wear a U.S. Coast Guard approved PFD if in an open boat or on the deck of a boat?
 - a. 11
 - b. 12
 - c. 13
 - d. 14
3. Which boats are required to be registered in the State of Alaska?
 - a. Paddlecraft
 - b. All boats used on international waters
 - c. Undocumented powerboats
 - d. All boats used on state waters
4. What is Alaska's blood alcohol legal limit for boat operators?
 - a. 0.08
 - b. 0.10
 - c. 0.12
 - d. 0.14
5. In Alaska, boat registration is valid for how long?
 - a. One year
 - b. Three years
 - c. Five Years
 - d. Ten years
6. The 1-10-1 rule refers to
 - a. Fuel consumption
 - b. Boat capacity
 - c. Formula for determining hull speed
 - d. Cold Water Immersion

7. According to fatality statistics, which is the number one threat to Alaska boaters?
 - a. Marine mammals
 - b. Collisions with other boats
 - c. Cold water immersion
 - d. Propeller strikes
8. A capacity plate/label will include what information:
 - a. Weight for persons, motor and gear
 - b. Fuel capacity
 - c. Trailer hitch size
 - d. Minimum tire size
9. A person involved in a sudden cold water immersion will likely experience what initial affect?
 - a. Gasping and hyperventilation
 - b. Elevated body temperature
 - c. A drop in arterial blood pressure
 - d. Frostbite and tissue damage
10. In Alaska, the correct display of boat registration numbers and sticker must
 - a. have numbers on the port side of the hull
 - b. have numbers 3 inches high with contrasting color with the hull
 - c. have state registration sticker below the numbers
 - d. also include State of Alaska Fish and Game number