

USCG AUXILIARY PUBLIC AFFAIRS A-DIRECTORATE

Public Affairs Contest Guidelines 2022-23

General Guidelines: All submissions to any contest category below should have been produced, written or photographed between 1 May 2022 to 31 May 2023.

Submissions for all categories shall be received no later than 1 June 2023. No exceptions to this deadline will be permitted.

AWARDS: Judging reports are due to both of our Deputy Directors, no later than 10th June 2023. Both Deputy Directors will review and consolidate in one report, the list of winners and send it to the A-Director by no later than 13th June 2023. The A-Director must submit award winners' report to the Coast Guard Auxiliary Association no later than 30 June 2023. Each first-place winner will be announced and presented with a plaque at the 2023 Coast Guard Auxiliary National Conference Meeting (NACON).

CONTESTS: There are 4 (four) Public Affairs contest categories;

- Publication
- Public Affairs Event Contest
- Photography
- Video

PLEASE NOTE FOR ALL CONTESTS: The photo release for an adult only needs to be obtained when the photograph is taken under circumstances where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy, rather than in a public venue. For example, if the image of an individual is captured at a boat show or public affairs booth outdoors, or at the show, or at a marina, there is not such a reasonable expectation of privacy. A PE class in a room or place that is not open to the public, but only to registered students is an example of a place where there would be a reasonable expectation of privacy. The same could be said of an event on a Coast Guard or Department of Defense installation.

Please read the instructions below for each category. You can enter more than one contest.

Publication (PB) Contest: This contest recognizes Coast Guard Auxiliary units district, division, and flotilla that have successfully published three or more issues of a unit publication during the past year. Flotilla newsletters eligible for judging must be published at least quarterly during the year. Division newsletters eligible for judging must be published at least quarterly during the year. District newsletters eligible for judging must be published at least quarterly during the year. Each entry must be identified with the name of the editor and the district/division/flotilla.

Consideration will be given to: announcements of coming flotilla, division, and district activities, recognition of flotilla member achievements or awards, member training items, and balance of content. Extra consideration will be given for publications that highlight themes of inclusion, recruitment, retention and augmentation. Entries will be judged using the standards contained in the current USCG Auxiliary Publication Manual.

Judging for this award shall be done by a committee consisting of at least 3 members recommended by DVC Publications and appointed by the Deputy Director-Publications and approved by the A-

Director. Judging and selection of the best district, division and flotilla newsletter will be scheduled in accordance with the current deadline for submitting winning entries.

Submissions shall be received no later than 1 June 2023. No exceptions to this deadline will be permitted. Entries will be evaluated on several categories including design, layout, writing quality, photojournalism, and use of the Associated Press Style.

Any member of the Auxiliary at the flotilla, division, or district level may submit newsletters. Submissions consisting of a copy of exactly three (3) separate issues of the unit publication must be electronically submitted to Andrew Niquette, Division Chief of Publications via Thank you for helping to tell the Auxiliary story. \(google.com\) or andrew.r.niquette@cgauxnet.us. Each entry shall be identified with the name of the editor of the publication and the unit number.

Public Affairs Contest (PA): Entrants will e-mail a synopsis of their project, activity, etc. to the PA Contest coordinator (listed below). These will be presented for the best district, division and flotilla projects.

- Execution – putting the plan into action.
