

Captain Troy P. Glendye
Chief Director of Auxiliary
Chief, Office of Auxiliary and Boating Safety
Coast Guard Office of Auxiliary and Boating Safety

Captain Glendye is the Chief of the Coast Guard Office of Auxiliary and Boating Safety where he serves as the Chief Director of the Coast Guard Auxiliary as well as the National Coordinator for the National Recreational Boating Safety Program.

His previous assignment was the Deputy Director of the Logistics Transformation Program Integration Office within the Assistant Commandant for Engineering and Logistics Directorate to modernize and fully align all Coast Guard Engineering disciplines within the Coast Guard's Mission Support Business Model. Additional assignments include Engineering Officer at CG Air Station Clearwater, Long Range Surveillance Product Line Manager and C-130J Engineering Officer at the Coast Guard's Aviation Logistics Center, Engineering Officer at CG Air Station Washington DC, Assistant Engineering Officer at CG Air Station Miami and CGC RESOLUTE. Throughout his career, Captain Glendye was an Aircraft Commander in 5 different aircraft to include the HU-25 Falcon, C-37A Gulfstream V, C-143A Challenger 604 and C-130J & H aircraft.

Captain Glendye is a 2000 graduate of the United States Coast Guard Academy where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Naval Architecture/Marine Engineering. He also graduated from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University in 2007 with a Master of Business and Administration in Aviation and Purdue University in 2014 with a Master of Science in Engineering.

Captain Glendye is a native of Plymouth, Massachusetts. He and his wife Sara live in Charlotte, North Carolina and have 4 children ranging from the age of 20 to 7: Mason Swisher, Connor, Kenley Liv, and Madeline.